Fall Protection Competent Inspector (July 22nd 2014)

Duration: ½ Day (4 hours) 11:30 AM -4:00 PM (lunch included)

This course builds upon a student's practical knowledge of fall protection through the discussions of in-house testing and literature review; UV and chemical exposure to synthetic strapping and is designed to increase personal skill level through a variety of hands-on inspection exercises. This 4-hour course deals with the process of developing an inspection program and applying that to practical equipment inspection. Participants completing the course will be given the tools needed to be able to conduct competent person inspections of fall protection equipment. This course does not provide the knowledge base required for re-certification of complex hardware such as SRLs and mechanicals, as it the physical inspection of the equipment. Students will be provided with an inspection manual with checklists and a certificate upon completion of the course.

Topics Discussed: The regulations and standards for inspection of fall arrest systems are covered in detail along with the record-keeping requirements. • Inspection premise for harnesses, lanyards & shock absorbers, carabiners, anchorage connectors, and SRLs • Skyline Horizontal lifelines • Equipment logs and recording the inspection • Practical equipment inspections of faulty gear • Review of technical bulletins

Participants will receive a wallet-sized certificate of completion and a copy of Reliance's "Fall Protection Equipment Inspector Manual."
